Think pink at the Saint James

Need a little color to spice up your summer? Saint James Paris has the answer. Decorated with amazing hot air balloons, the terrace is for anyone who likes to look at life through rose-tinted glasses. As well as a rose bar serving a range of wines and champagnes selected by sommelier Micaël Morais, you can sample the sophisticated fare of chef Virginie Basselot and taste the fruity cocktails prepared by the new head barman Judith Noël. We dare you to leave without tasting the two summer cocktails: Le Pink Panther and La Rose des Vents.

Bar à Rosés du Saint James
Paris. Until September 13. From 7pm. 43, avenue Bugeaud, 16th. Tel. 01 44 05 81 81.
www.saint-james-paris.com

Moonlight cinema

Projections of cult movies... in the heart of Paris, in streets, parks... for a new experience to re-experience films in a new decor! For this 14th edition, 9 screenings will take place in 9 different locations. You can sit on the steps of the Butte to watch the film "Du Rififi chez les hommes" by Jules Dassin. Then head up to the Place des Vosges with "Lend me your hand" by Eric Lartey and then over to the Parc Montsouris. The final clapping will be held on the Esplanade des Invalides with André Dussollier in "Same Old Song" by Alain Resnais!

The Molitor swimming pool terrace

If there's a single terrace that's got people dreaming of summer recently, it's this one! Set in a mind-blowing hanging garden by landscape designer Thierry Dalcant, it makes a divine spot to sip on cocktails made with plants from the kitchen garden surrounding the bar. And if you're feeling peckish, try the "à la plancha" menu cooked on a giant BBQ, to savor with a range of salads. Dominated by the Eiffel Tower, the view is something else.
Toit-Terrasse Molitor. Accessible to everyone and available for private hire. 8, avenue de la Porte Molitor, 16th. www.mt.fr